
Biography

Kim Bulloch

Kim has more than 30 years' experience as a Police Officer who served the Durham Region Community. For the last nine years of her career, she advanced to a Senior Police Executive role.

In addition to her work responsibilities, Kim served as the President of the Durham Regional Police Senior Officer's Association and Vice-President of the Oshawa PC Riding Association. As an instructor at Durham College, she delivered several courses to Police Foundations students.

Through her work experience Kim achieved an extensive level of knowledge relating to leadership and in the development of policy strategies and initiatives. Kim has been a member of Oshawa Community Credit Union since 1983 and served on Oshawa Community's Board of Directors from 2015-2020 and returned to the Board in 2023.

As a Director, Kim completed the various compulsory courses relating to: Audit and Compliance Oversight, Board and CEO Performance, Credit Union Operations, Financial Literacy, Governance and Ethics, Leadership, Risk Management Oversight and Strategic Planning. Kim also served on various committees including Policy, Audit and Nominating. Kim is a graduate of the Executive Development Program through the Canadian Police College and holds a Business Leadership Diploma and Adult learning certificate from Durham College.